Informationen zum Coronavirus/COVID-19 FINNAIR Airlines: FARE PRODUCT WITHDRAWAL

Sehr geehrte Reisebüropartner, hier eine weitere Information zum Thema Coronavirus von Finnair:

"All businesses and especially those in travel have felt the severe implications of the Coronavirus Pandemic, this has led to job losses across many industries, at Finnair we have said goodbye to 700 non-flight colleagues.

*The knock on effects of this are that we need to review within every department how we operate as we move into the recovery and rebuild stage in 2021 and beyond, within our fare offering this means the streamlining and simplification of current products. From 01 January 2021 we will terminate the following fare products AirSea, Visit home, Flight only and Missionary, and hereby provide you as per contract 30 days written notice of their withdrawal from the market.

We wish to continue to work with you in providing innovative products to different market segments and welcome the opportunity to discuss how we can work in partnership to do this moving forward."

Herzliche Grüße aus Berlin
